Leadership change at ARAG Belgium

Mireille Urlus to leave on 31 January 2027

After around 15 years at the helm of ARAG Belgium, Mireille Urlus will leave ARAG on 31 January 2027. She will continue to fulfil her duties until her departure.

Mireille Urlus has led ARAG SE's Belgian branch since 2012. She has also been actively involved in the Belgian insurance association Assuralia for many years. She has chaired its Legal Expenses Insurance Division since 2017 and has been a member of its Board of Directors since 2018. She is leaving ARAG Belgium due to differing views on the future development of ARAG in Belgium.

"Mireille Urlus has shaped our Belgian business over many years and developed it further with great dedication. I would like to sincerely thank her for her contribution. I wish her all the best for the future, both professionally and personally," says Dr. Renko Dirksen, CEO of ARAG SE.

A decision on Mireille Urlus's successor will be made at a later date. Until then, Olivier Demolin, CFO of ARAG Belgium, will serve as interim head of the branch. He will assume the additional responsibilities jointly with COO Patrick Schoofs within the management team.
